WISCONSIN TECHNICAL COLLEGE SYSTEM

State General Aid to Technical Colleges
Amendment to Omnibus Motion #175

Motion:

Move to provide $17,500,000 FED in 2009-10 and $17,500,000 FED in 2010-11 from federal government services stabilization moneys, to a new appropriation under the technical college system for supplemental funding for state general aid to technical colleges. Reduce funding under the federal appropriation under Program Supplements in AB 75 correspondingly. Specify that high demand professions or programs with waiting lists would be prioritized for use of this funding.

Note:

This motion would allocate $35,000,000 of federal government services stabilization moneys discussed in Paper #175 for general aids to WTCS districts.

Subject: RE: Motion 165 - State general aid to technical colleges, amendment to omnibus motion 175

Yes this was one of mine. They wanted to use the stimulus money from budget paper 175 that the Gov left on the table to increase funds for techs. But JFC subsequently appropriated that money, in action on paper 175, to backfill a lot of the 5% agency across the board cuts. So if someone wanted to do motion 165, you'd have to unwind paper 175 as well. Otherwise that money isn't available anymore.

Hope that helps. If you have questions, my line is 6-9917. Dave Loppnow wrote paper 175, so he could answer questions specific to that.

Layla, did you draft the above? If so, can you talk me through it, or direct me to someone who can talk me through it?
Thanks.

Rep. Montgomery will be working on amendments to Telecommunications Assessment, Telecommunications Assessment Transparency, Wireless E911 fund balance, so cancel Gottlieb's requests for amendments on these items.

Subject: RE: Budget amendment request

Mark,

The federal money was used to replace youth aids funding and to replace GPR funding for shared revenue. The GPR from shared revenue was used to backfill all of the other GPR cuts shown in the attachment. If you need to unwind this transaction, you could pull the federal money out of youth aids, pull the federal money out of shared revenue and replace it with GPR, and implement all of the GPR reductions shown in Attachment 2. This would free up the federal money and then you could provide it to WTCS. The requestor has to decide whether they can accept the GPR reductions shown in Attachment 2 as the price for increasing funding for WTCS.

I hope that this is helpful.

Subject: Budget amendment request

Dave, as we discussed yesterday, I have a budget amendment request to undo what was accomplished in paper 175 in order to appropriate $17.5 million FED in fiscal year 09-10 and the same amount in fiscal year 10-11 to the technical college system for supplemental funding for state general aid (and to prioritize the funding for high demand professions or programs with waiting lists).

I'm not sure how to undo paper 175. What alternative did JCF approve? Is it possible to undo the paper to get $17.5 million in each fiscal year for the requested tech. college appropriation?

Attachment 2 to that paper lists 3 pages of appropriations that, in total, were reduced by $17,852,000 in 09-10 and $17,927,8000 in 10-11. Did JCF offset those reductions with federal money? If so, I suppose I could, on some proportionate basis, undo the offsets, and appropriate the federal money as requested.

Please let me know what you think.

Thanks,
